Nature of dispute and description of your disagreement (attach additional pages if necessary):

City's decision was based on incorrect property address. My daughter, Liz McGowan, owns my house, but she lived at 2500 Perkins Ln.
at the time of the flooding. (See letter)
The neighbors & I had similar flooding in 1997 & 2003.

Date of City's decision (please attach):

April 8, 2004

Describe the Relief that you are seeking and any evidence that you have to support your claim. Please attach your original claim and other documents (receipts, photos, videos, etc.) that you would like the Court to review:

To be reimbursed for the (2135.47)
money I paid to have the back up repaired. My next door neighbor, Jim May, also had water in his basement at the same time and the City offered to repair his basement. I feel that I am being unfairly treated for fixing it myself.

Dear Ms. McGavran:

We have completed a review of your claim for damage to your property on May 9, 2003 at 2560 Perkins Lane, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Greater Cincinnati area experienced heavy rains that caused flooding. The damage to your property was from the heavy rains, which is outside the City of Cincinnati control. The City of Cincinnati cannot be liable for damages that result from events that are outside the City's control.

Therefore, we must deny your claim. If you wish to appeal this decision, you may do so through the State of Ohio court system.

Sincerely,

Anita A. Boulmetis
